The Renaissance Singers, a Chillicothe vocal ensemble, have performed throughout the area for over fifteen years and are known for tight vocal harmonies and the ability to sing many styles ranging from 16th Century a cappella selections to contemporary jazz. The Lincoln Brass is a quintet of musicians who have been feature performers in concerts and Artists' Series events, including Chillicothe's, for many years. This year's concert "Peace" will feature many familiar songs of the season that will inspire and entertain everyone. Traditional carols, as well as new Christmas songs will be sung and played. Several selections will feature the Renaissance Singers and Lincoln Brass performing together
